Sanyog Gupta Voyages

Luxury Destination Management Company

As we have evolved as a company, we have come to realise that our love lies not in booking tour packages, but in showcasing the unique experiences across the nations we serve. We realised that there are many secret corners of our world, rare moments, mysteries and stories.

Our company owned by a family, but run professionally. We have hierarchical systems which are driven by our core family values. We have come to understand we do not want to be the largest company globally. We have never tried to be the richest or the most influential. I say, we just want to be the bestest in what we do.

We are a family tradition for over three decades that have been highlighting this part of the planet. All over Indian sub-continent, we have grown to become a popular, valued and autonomous DMC providing the finest cultural experiences, personal immersions and natural wonders. We are here to build stories for our clients, tales of love, of wonderful excitement. We are proud of our past and its legacy.

‘We are real voyagers and love varying voyager’s life!’

MOROCCO

Imagine a day like this: You climb onto a camel, sway into a Moroccan desert to watch the sun set, and then settle into a Berber encampment to eat and dance around the campfire before nodding off in a luxury tent. Anywhere but Morocco, that would be hard to beat.

IT ALL STARTS WITH SSALAM LEKUM

An intoxicating fusion of vibrant medinas, breathtaking mountains and an awe-inspiring desert. Morocco's blend of diverse cultures and landscapes is as romantic as it is compelling.

A gateway to Africa from Europe, it is where ancient Berber, Roman, Arab, Spanish and French history meet and mix to create something uniquely alluring.

The Mediterranean and Atlantic coastline is dotted with vibrant cosmopolitan port cities such as Casablanca, Tangier and the capital, Rabat, along with laid-back fishing towns such as bohemian Essaouira, Oualidia, Asilah and Agadir with their long beaches cooled by ocean winds.

A night out under the stars here is a real privilege.

Amanjena - Marrakech

Inspired by the rose-hued buildings of old Marrakech, palatial Amanjena lies just outside the fabled Red City. Shady courtyards with petal-strewn fountains lead to the central bassin that nourishes the gardens in which spacious standalone guest pavilions rest, many with private pools.

Views over Amelkis Golf Course extend to the High Atlas Mountains on the horizon.

Four Seasons Hotels

Perfectly situated between the city's ancient medina and the cosmopolitan neighbourhoods of the Ville Nouvelle, Four Seasons Resort Marrakech welcomes you with a blissful retreat – 16 hectares (40 acres) filled with Moorish gardens and refreshing pools. Here, traditional values and contemporary comforts unite. Experience true relaxation at our Moroccan spa, let the kids play in their very own kasbah, and take in views of the Atlas Mountains from your private terrace.

The Oberoi Marrakech

The Oberoi, Marrakech is located within twenty-eight acres of Mediterranean orchards with fragrant citrus trees and centuries old olive groves. Our five star hotel in Marrakech has beautifully landscaped gardens punctuated by water features. Its authentic architecture is inspired by palaces of ancient Morocco. The courtyard of the main building incorporates the design of the historic Medersa Ben Youssef, built in the 14th century; one of Marrakech's most famous historic monuments.

Palais Faraz - Fes

Refined traditions and elegant art of living, stunning architecture, impressive craftsmanship and an outstanding view on the millennial medina of Fes await you.

Incorporating the most luxurious décor elements in an authentic nineteenth century palace, extensively renovated with love and obsession. Palais Faraj is where guests step into the secret and sumptuous history of the most fascinating city in the Kingdom of Morocco.

DESTINATIONS

CHEFCHAOUEN

Built on a mountainside, Chefchaouen is a city with a special vibes. Its unique charm gives an impression of unreality. With its blue-rinsed houses, the whole city seems to be bathed in azure. You walk around as if you were in a dream.

More than just an ornament, the beautiful Chefchaouen brims with attractions. Its heritage is rich. The inescapable Medina with its famous narrow winding alleys, is an opportunity to mingle with the local population, and to smell and taste delights: from freshly baked bread, to skillfully prepared tagines. There is also the Kasbah which stands in the middle of the old quarter: its lush gardens, located in the center of the city, are a haven of freshness. Its museum which is home to a collection of old weapons, some photos of the city, and textiles, is a must-see.

Boasting its unique geographical position, Chefchaouen is a paradise for walkers. The paths of the surrounding mountains offer pleasant hiking activities.

ERRACHIDIA-MIDELT- MERZOUGA

Midelt, Errachidia and Merzouga lead the east side of Morocco. The first two cities show a mountainous country with the reliefs of the Middle Atlas Mountains that draw perfect nature. This majestic setting seduces and charms its visitors. It is also from there that the caravans used to leave, loaded with food, for Timbuktu, and returning back.

Merzouga is one of the gates of the Sahara which is a small magnetic village located in the middle of the sands. It's the territory of the Erg Chebbi, a world of dunes, palm groves, tracks and hikes. Roam through the desert and explore these expansive sand bathed in sunshine and a magic atmosphere. You walk in the middle of these arid vastness when, at the bend of a dune, and you see a lake : you've just arrived to Dayet Srij.

The Moroccan east is full of curiosities. Get immersed in the mountains and deserts and say hello to a completely different country !

TAROUDANT

Taroudant with its majestic ramparts, is one of the most beautiful towns in Morocco. Stroll in the shade of its walls full of history and whose towers have stood for more than five centuries to protect the ancient capital from the Saadian sultans. All day long, the sun strikes these high stone columns and bathes the city in a light where the gold of its rays blends well with the ochre of the walls.

City of deep-rooted and long-standing history, Taroudant has a lot of stories to tell. Here, the dynamic of modern life blend seamlessly with the traditional heritage. Venture into the middle of its active souks alleys, negotiate with the merchants on the stalls, and discover all the richness of local craftsmanship. Leather is particularly famous, as well as terracotta trinkets and Amazigh jewellery.

Taroudant has also made a specialty, argan oil. If you want to meet specialists of this delight, go outside the ramparts, and visit cooperatives and private individuals who shell the nuts, press them, extract the substantial marrow, and then make whole oils ready to taste.

AZILAL

Extend your stay in Morocco and visit the attractive town, Azilal. Located in the center of the Atlas Mountains, this city is teeming with charming landscapes. Its unique vivid culture, crafts and architecture, has contributed to develop a responsible and supportive ecotourism that attracts more and more tourists.

Come and enjoy a rich and varied gastronomy : from Amazigh couscous, to fish tagine, to olive tagine with argan oil.

You'll be seduced by the many natural wonders in front of you ! Contemplate the splendid waterfalls of Ouzoud, and let yourself be surprised by the amazing natural bridge of Imi N'Ifri, near Demnate. Admire the azure blue water of the lake of Bin El Widane, and refresh yourself in the gorges of the Ahansal wadi or to take a walk in the very beautiful natural reserve of Tamga.

Last stopover, the Aït Bouguemez valley that bears well its nickname « valley of happy people ». Surrounded by the majestic M'goun mountain, the valley culminates at more than 4,071 meters.

Setting out for Ouarzazate, Zagora, Tinghir is going for an extraordinary journey brimming with a breathtaking wonders. The region reveals to its visitors a diversity of incredible landscapes, from the singular atmosphere of the desert to the picturesque green valleys.

It's not a surprise that David Lean, Ridley Scot, Martin Scorsese or Alejandro González Iñárritu, have chosen this destination, just like their forefathers did who became famous for filming the record-breaking "Lawrence of Arabia", "Gladiator", "Kundun", "Babel" and mots recently « Prison Break ».

Thrill seekers who eager for adventure and trekking, will find many tracks to take you to the edge of the desert. Meet camel drivers and their caravans at the crossroads of the roads of Draâ, Ziz and Dades.

Be ready for a sensational experience at the door of the desert !

SAFI

The splendid architecture of Kechla and the waters of the Atlantic crashing against its walls: this is one of the many outstanding popular paintings in Safi.,For five centuries now, the fortress has stood as a sentinel on the shores of the ocean. Its high crenellated towers offer admirable views of the surrounding area. It is an opportunity to admire the seafront, the bustling and animated life of this provincial capital.

The pottery district is particularly attractive. Craftsmen make marvels of terracotta and clay that is put on display in the windows and stalls of their shops. Safi is one of the Moroccan capitals of ceramics and in its streets, beautiful trinkets are designed to make charming souvenirs.,, Atop the Kechla, admire the old Medina. The labyrinth of its alleys and their narrowness have something mysterious about them that invites you to take a stroll.

When you think that you've seen it all, Safi surprises you with its hidden treasures !

AL HOCEIMA

Blue waters of the Mediterranean, its gentle, light waves and the coastline that outlines the contours of one of Morocco's most beautiful bays, welcome to the wonderful Al Hoceima ! The place looks like an earthly paradise. On one of its many beaches, you can relax on a deckchair, enjoy the sun during a farniente stay.

Al Hoceima is not only a simple seaside town. Its surroundings has a a lots of treasures that adventure lovers come in droves to explore. Outside the town, near the fishing village of Torres de Alcala, are the ruins of five watchtowers. The Portuguese had built them during their colony. Today, the site offers pleasant walks for all lovers of old stones!

Inside of the city, the port is not to be overlooked. Its edges are animated by the activity of fishermen and it is lovely to stroll there. A little far away, the Moro Viejo cornice offers a magnificent sight, and its bay gives a breathtaking view of the surroundings.

OUJDA-SAIDIA

Saidia symbolizes Morocco of blue and warm waters. Either it's for holidays with family or in a couple, or with your friends, don't miss out the opportunity to admire the splendid nature of the region. Go for a stroll in the city, visit the architectural heritage and long-standing medina in Oujda.

With an impressive 14 kilometres of lovely white golden sandy beach and a generous sun shining all year round, The seaside resort of Saidia is an inevitable haven. At the water's edge or nearby, many activities are available to you including water sports and golfing. In the evening, the marina is the perfect spot to taste the delights of the region.

Sixty km away from Saïdia, Oujda reveals the richness of its long history. From the medina and its monumental gates, to a cultural journey inside Sebti palace, to Lalla Aicha park which is a small haven of freshness inside the city.

Oujda-Saïdia is all this : mindfulness, joy, and enough excitement to spend an unforgettable stay !

DAKHLA

Located in the south of Morocco, Dakhla is a small part of paradise, lost between the waters of the Atlantic and the sands of the Sahara. It gives you a complete change of scenery. Kilometres of beaches expand from one side of the town to the other : an opportunity to relax, and indulge in all kinds of water activities.

These shores are one of the most beautiful ones in Morocco. These pearls are an absolute haven of peace ; an ideal place to bask in the 25-degree sun all year round.

In the surroundings, the PK25 and Fom El Bouir beaches are particularly famous. While PK25 is a perfect place for relaxation, where to swim quietly in the calm and crystalline waters of the lagoon, the atmosphere of Fom El Bouir is more lively.

Leading to sub-Saharan Africa, Dakhla is a gateway to a never-ending array of thrilling and exciting activities !

ESSAOUIRA-MOGADOR

Crenellated walls, special wind, houses with white and blue facades, Essaouira, the ancient Mogador is the "Bride of the Atlantic".

It is one of those coastal cities where the unique atmosphere and water activities seamlessly blend. Walk quietly in the shade of its ramparts, the very ones that draw the contours of Astapor, the red city of the "Game of Thrones" series. Climb these walls and take the parapet walk, from where you can see the Purpuraires Islands, falcons, gulls and seagulls hovering above this nature reserve. On the other side, surfers, windsurfers and kitesurfers are taming the waves, taking advantage from the wind.

A walk can lead you to the fishing port where the sailors are active. Get to the fish market where to taste the fish and seafood caught during the night. In the centre of the city, the medina invites you on a discovery wander into its winding alley. Ranked as the most beautiful cities in Morocco by Unesco, the city hums to the beat of music every summer : the Gnaoua festival celebrates Afro-Maghrebin rhythms making people's stays memorable ones.

EL JADIDA-MAZAGAN

Once nicknamed Mazagan, this city built by the Portuguese has stood proudly since the 16th century.

Its well preserved architectural treasures and the subtle mixture of both Moroccan and European cultures have earned it a place on the UNESCO World Heritage List.

By visiting the mysterious cistern and its majestic vaults, cinema lovers will recognize some of the decorations used by Orson Wells in "Othello".

Multiple cinematographic and televisual productions come in droves each year to benefit from El Jadida assets.

Between a green eucalyptus forest and the splendid beach of El Haouzia, the Kerzner International group known for establishing the Atlantis complex in Dubai, was also inspired enough to create the sumptuous seaside resort of Mazagan.

AGADIR-TAGHAZOUT

In the west of the country, bordered by the waves of the Atlantic, Agadir is one of the pearls of Morocco. Whatever the season, the sun pours its rays and the city enjoys a pleasant climate that the trade winds still soften. Above all, its 10-kilometre-long seafront offers tourists magnificent views of the blue ocean and the opportunity to laze around in the best conditions.

The main seaside resort of the country, the city with 300 days of sunshine per year, is full of activities. At the water's edge, cafés and restaurants open their doors to you, introduce you to the local gastronomy and submit their specialities to the enlightened judgements of your taste buds!

Further on in the city, the El Had souk spreads out through the streets, deploys its stalls: more than 6,000 shops offer themselves to your curiosity and you will enjoy strolling in this atmosphere animated by the negotiations of the merchants. Never sleepy, the city welcomes every summer the Timitar festival dedicated to world music and more specifically to Amazigh music.

AGADIR HINTERLAND

Agadir is an unmissable place. The Souss Valley and, a bit further, the peaks of the Lesser Atlas Mountains, form wonderful compositions as only nature can do. This backcountry is rich in possibilities for you to immerse yourself in the joys of exploration and green tourism.

If you're a lover of green and wide spaces, the Souss Massa National Park is not to be overlooked. It is home to extraordinary wildlife: 250 bird species, including the famous bald ibis, along with antelopes, boars and mongooses. Hike through this untamed wilderness for an unforgettable experience.

Elsewhere in the park, at Tifnit, the rock walls will catch your eye, for they are riddled with the carved-out homes of ancient cave dwellers that were abandoned long ago.

Discovery is one of the top activities in and around Agadir. So wander from site to site and let nature and its treasures surprise you !

FEZ

Fez has a special atmosphere. This 13th-century city is an imperial city of long-lasting multicultural history, that reserves unexpected surprises for its visitors.

Cross the walls of the famous medina of Fez, recognized by UNESCO as an outstanding universal value. Stroll through the streets of the Fez-El-Bali district.

The Bab Boujloud is the easiest way to enter the Medina.

In early May, the squares and alleys resound with world music, where the Festival of World Sacred Music is held in the former imperial capital, which occurs along with Jazz in Riads, one of the main events in the city's cultural calendar.

Don't leave without having tasted the city's gastronomy, reputed to be one of the best in the world.

MARRAKECH

Between tradition and modernity, Marrakech is the promise of unequalled sensations. Strolling the Jemaa El-Fna square and the souks with their shimmering colours and oriental smells, the red city offers you a complete change of scenery. Horse-drawn carriage rides, sunny terraces, travelling artists and other day and night activities will give a taste of wishful comeback.

You will be able to admire all the architectural richness of the Medina, upon visiting one of its many riads, small oriental palaces overlooking a beautiful patio. You can also relax and recharge at the Menara, a vast garden with an emblematic basin.

Marrakech shower its visitors by its splendour and its diversity, you just have to leave the ramparts to be immersed in modern Morocco.

The districts of Gueliz and Hivernage offer the most modern infrastructures, luxury boutiques and international ready-to-wear stores, airy avenues; which all contribute to Marrakech's unique offering.

TETOUAN

Just like its first cousin, Tangier, Tetouan boasts a peaceful atmosphere.

Known as the daughter of "Granada", it's a city with Hispano-Moorish footmarks. Its medina is listed as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO.

Not far from Tetouan, the seaside resort of "Tamouda Bay" expands on fifteen kilometres of fine sandy bay.

Prestigious establishments have settled there, giving a luxury setting to the region. In the crystal-clear blue waters of the Mediterranean, you can only enjoy a peaceful stay while getting to know the art of living of the inhabitants.

The city of Tetouan, with its multicultural identity, offers a journey through time !

TANGIER

In the north of Morocco, on the coasts of Tangier where the Mediterranean and Atlantic waters converge, you'll discover a unique city bearing a multicultural heritage.

Stroll the streets of « the White » Tangier, they are lined with lime-coated houses. Just like Delacroix or Matisse did their upon arrival, let yourself be carried away by the dreamy atmosphere that covers the city.

At the foot of the high walls of the "Kasbah", roam through the alleys of the great "Socco", and admire the fortress that dominates the medina.

A little far away, explore the "Sultan's Palace" which is nowadays dedicated to the arts of Morocco.

Tangier is also renowned for the Spanish influence on its culture, starting with the arena that stands on the "Plaza de Torros", not to mention the "Cervantes" theatre built in 1913.

CASABLANCA

Beautiful palm trees lining its paths, with the Atlantic ocean over the horizon, and large business buildings in every corner: Casablanca is the economic lung of Morocco; a bustling metropolis.

Modern infrastructures are in the middle of charming districts, between Arab-Muslim heritage and legacies of the colonial period. Discover all the possibilities: take a stroll in the medina, which is one of latest medinas built in Morocco, roam through the centre and its art-deco buildings, and join the Hassan II mosque; the splendid of architecture built on the water.

Let yourself be tempted by the festive side of the city. Take advantage of the cornice, its clubs and festivals too, such as the Casablanca Festival, Jazzablanca or Tremplin L'Boulevard.

The coastline, bordered by beaches equipped to suit all your comfort, invites you to experience the most fun activities that will make your stay more enjoyable, from diving, to jet-skiing to boating. The White city, Casablanca, is where culture and serenity activities blend seamlessly.

CASABLANCA MEDINA

Casablanca is a well-designed modern city with all the conveniences you can think of: from comfortable hotels to a multi-mode transportation system with great coverage and suitable infrastructure.

For explorers, the city offers you intriguing experiences and entertainment from January to December.

Discover its cultural schedule that's one of the most jam-packed in the country ! National and international stars perform at the various festivals, concerts, shows and other cultural happenings.

The best-known events are the Jazzablanca Festival, Boulevard Tremplin and the Casablanca Festival. The city's energy radiates throughout the whole region.

Casablanca is a can't-miss destination for party people looking for memorable moments. Clubs and restaurants hum to the beat of trendy music, and keep you dancing all night long !

MEKNES

The Medina of Meknes and the remains of the royal palace have earned it an indisputable place on the UNESCO World Heritage List.

On El Hedime square, Bab Mansour, one of the masterpieces of Hispano-Moorish art, is the gateway to the medina. Don't miss visiting the royal stables and granaries of Sultan Moulay Ismail.

In the North of Meknes, stands the largest Roman archaeological site in Morocco, which is Volubilis.

Triumphal arch, capitol, house of Bacchus, everything bears witness to the splendour of the city and to its economic and political weight.

Being an imperial and eternal city, Meknes offers you the experience of a timeless stay full of heritage discovery.

RABAT

Rabat is a cultural city deep-rooted in history. Many masterpieces decorate its streets and squares. Visit the Kasbah des Oudayas which is a majestic and splendid architecture embellished by the surrounding gardens.

Not far from the walls, stand the imposing walls of the Chellah; a necropolis from the time of the Merinids.

Crossing the walls is like entering another world; walk among ancient vestiges, gardens and storks.

Rabat is also a modern eco-responsible capital with its green spaces. Beautiful parks await you, such as the botanical test garden or the Exotic Gardens of Bouknadel which is a few kilometres from the city.

Rabat boasts an outstanding coastline; on the Atlantic Ocean shores, it has kilometres of well equipped beaches that lead to the neighbouring city of Casablanca.

SIDI IFNI

Best beach in southwest Morocco

Venture to southwest Morocco and, on the shores of the Atlantic, you'll come across Sidi Ifni. Though an atmospheric city in its own right – full of peaceful vibes, Spanish art deco flair and artsy murals, it's the beaches that really captivate. Both far from commercialized and perfect for long walks, they're just lovely. And the rocky cliffs above them are the perfect outpost to admire a dazzling sunset and the red-ish glow of the rocks.

CUISINE

Gastronomic journey with Moroccan flavours

Morocco's culinary heritage embraces the deep-rooted traditions and cultural variety of the country. Couscous, Tajine, Pastilla, Mrouzia, and R'fissa, are some of the emblematic dishes of the country that you can't resist. Subtly composed of a wide variety of striking flavours and scents, Moroccan cuisine draws its originality from a combination between Berber, Arab-Andalusian, and Jewish culinary traditions. Thanks to its rich cultural heritage specific to each region, Morocco has built an undisputed reputation worldwide.

MOROCCO-A UNIQUE SHOPPING

From the souk to luxury shops

Souks (markets) can be found in many of Morocco's cities but the cities with the biggest and expansive shopping areas lie within Marrakesh and Fez. The daily life in the ancient walls of the medinas of Fez and Marrakesh haven't changed in centuries. There are tiny shops and stalls where people will haggle over a glass of really sweet mint tea (Morocco's national drink). Veiled women walk around the narrow passageways and craftsmen pound designs on brass, and the echoes of everyday life reverberate through the marketplace.

SPA & WELLNESS

A person is shown in silhouette, meditating in a hammock. The scene is set against a warm, golden sunset with palm trees in the background. The person's arms are extended horizontally, palms up, in a classic meditative pose. The hammock is suspended by dark ropes, and the person is lying on a wooden deck. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and serene.

NATURE

A photograph showing the silhouettes of several people standing on a sand dune. The sky is a gradient of orange and yellow, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The people are positioned in the lower third of the frame, looking out over the horizon.

A preserved nature

Morocco is a country unique in the variety of its natural resources. Mountain ranges, sandy beaches washed by the waves of the Mediterranean Sea and the Atlantic Ocean, tiny bays among the rocks, endless expanses of golden dunes, emerald oases – Simply put, nature shows its entire splendor in this region. With more than forty ecosystems located throughout the country, Morocco offers much more variety than the expected arid desert. A great deal of these ecosystems are protected, holding national park or national reserve status while hosting various plant and animal species.

MEDINAS & CULTURAL HERITAGE IMMERSION

UNIQUE CRAFTS AND TRADITIONS

In the east of the country, Ouarzazate, Zagora and Tinghir symbolize the cultural diversity of Morocco: they bear witness to the most deeply-rooted traditions that seamlessly blend with modern creation in the moving making industry.

Ouarzazate, is the heartland of the southern region, where kasbahs, oases, arid mountains, are all elements that embellish the splendid city. Revel in the lights and the sumptuous settings that one hosted Game of Thrones, Alibaba, Gladiator, and many more.

AZILAL, A RICH HISTORY

Nestled in the center of the country, Azilal is one of Morocco's little-known cities. The roads converge towards this city located halfway between the ocean and the desert.

The culture is not to be outdone : Arabs and Amazighs contribute hand-in-hand to the special atmosphere of the place.

Renowned as the Kingdom's water tower, Azilal invites you to uncover its natural treasures and emblematic monuments that reveal their secrets to every visitor.

CRAFTS AND AMAZIGH TRADITIONS

Built at the crossroads of the desert, the Souss valley and the High Atlas mountains, Taroudant invites you to a dive into history of the mythical lands of the caravanners. This city with a rich and diversified cultural heritage is not lacking in attractions.

Taroudant is one of the pearls of South Morocco with its historical ramparts. The crenellated walls of its ramparts extend over 6 kilometres. Flanked by 130 towers and elaborate gates, owes to Taroudant's special reputation. At daylight, it's very pleasant to walk in the shade of it.

DELVE INTO TRADITIONAL FESTIVALS

With its eye-popping scenery and its special night-time atmosphere, this region offers you an immediate change of scenery. Either it's in Errachidia, in Midelt, or in Merzouga, venture into a nomadic culture out of time !

The lucky visitors will have the opportunity to attend many cultural and artistic events such as the International Date Fair in Erfoud, the Wedding Festival in Imilchil, the International Merzouga Festival of World Music or the Apple Festival in Midelt.

THE SECRETS OF EL-JADIDA

El Jadida stands as a sentinel on the shores of the Atlantic. Built with towers bordered by the ocean, and surrounded by stunning ramparts, the ancient Portuguese fortified city charms its visitors. Numerous bastions still rise there allowing you to enjoy a wonderful view of the city.

In front of you is the medina with its ochre walls and interlacing of its narrow streets, as well as the famous Portuguese cistern whose vaults were used as decoration for Orson Welles' Othello. The old quarter is listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. In the shores where there stands the Sidi Bouafi lighthouse, which has been guiding sailors to the entrance of the port for nearly a century, spend a peaceful moment gazing at the beautiful scenery.

MOGADOR FOREVER

Essaouira the "well drawn" has some nice surprises in store for you. In its alleys, you will discover its heritage in every single detail.

Its fortified ramparts, carved with monumental gates, works of art and defence, are flanked by two citadels: the Squala of the Kasbah, the Squala of the port. In the shade of these walls, you can walk around and get a first impression of the city. Stroll its alleys and discover the mysterious medina. Just like the whole city, similarly to the old Mogador that became Essaouira, the Medina mixes both eastern and western influences.

The Ben Youssef mosque stands its minaret and many consular houses are scattered along its narrow streets.

A BRIDGE BETWEEN EUROPE

Tangier is a bustling city where heritage harmoniously blend with modern culture. The treasures of Hispano-Moorish architecture as well as the wonderful craft industry goes hand-in-hand with the most cheerful festivals and modern creations.

Tangier is a crossroads where influences converge. Its Kasbah as well as the Mendoubia Park are side by side with an ancient well-preserved medina. Not far away, the Plaza de Toros or the Cervantes theatre, and the Hafa café are where Sean Connery and the Rolling Stones enjoyed a mint tea.

TRADITION & HISTORY

Agadir owes much of its reputation to its bay and its inexhaustible hinterland. Not to forget its outstanding culture side. It's a city where heritage treasures seamlessly blend with the modern side of it.

Leave behind the ocean's shores and cross the walls of the medina. Roam through the narrow streets lined with walls decorated with zelliges, and pass under elaborate doors to meet and learn the skills of the gadiris craftsmen. Then join the Kasbah, perched on a rock 236 metres high. The earthquake of 1960 surprisingly saved the building, and for five centuries now, the Kasbah with various influences, has been protecting the city.

HISTORY & ITS ARCHITECTURAL HERITAGE

High crenellated walls, splendid towers and ancient cannons overlooking the ocean : the architecture of Safi's Kechla is quite impressive. Bathed by the waters of the Atlantic, overhanging them, this building gives the impression of being built on the waves.

It is the most important remnant of the Portuguese occupation ; elsewhere in the city, the remains of Africa's first Gothic cathedral is also reminiscent of the colonial period.

While surfers enjoy its waves, culture lovers will also find something to their liking !

CITY WALKS & RAMBLES

Saidia and Oujda, are two complementary cities. The Blue Pearl of Morocco, Saidia welcomes you in its state-of-the-art hotel facilities, that are both comfortable and environmentally friendly.

Oujda is a completely different atmosphere. The city has a long-standing history that blends seamlessly with modern culture. Going there is like walking in front of an ancient city, it's like strolling streets with a thousand-year-old history. In the medina, you'll discover the "old Morocco". The walled district take you to a journey through time.

THE UNTAINTED CHARM OF MARRAKECH

The rich heritage of Marrakech is nearly a thousand years. The time here seems to stand still. The culture is vivid.

Marrakech also hosts its part of splendid festivals. The city is a moviemaking landmark.

In December, it hosts the Marrakech International Film Festival, which draws the biggest names from the silver screen. In the middle of the year, popular arts are honored with their own festival, during which visitors are treated to the traditional songs, dances and music of Morocco. Enjoy this close encounter with the country's culture in a lighthearted ambiance.

TREASURES OF THE PAST

Fez is an absolute open-air museum. The succession of civilizations has accumulated treasures. Its medina being the oldest and largest city in Morocco, all the craftsmen are gathered, from tanners to weavers, dinandiers and potters.

Its streets are decorated with architectural masterpieces, and its squares are meeting places where an ancestral art of living is expressed through confident yet delicate gestures.

Stroll through the interlacing alleys of the imperial city. Enter the Bab Boujloud gate and admire the sophistication of Arab-Andalusian art; the zelliges of blue and jade that adorn it, the scrolls that carve out its openings.

THE RBATI SECRETS

Being a city rich in high places and monuments, Rabat also stands out for the vitality of its intangible heritage.

The rbatı handicraft is the staple of this city. In the lively medina, time seems to stand still. From father to son, craftsmen work there on fabrics, leather, gold and silver jewellery, not forgetting the famous rbatı carpet, which is a masterpiece of finesse and harmony. Not far away, in Sale, pottery, ironwork and basketry are making the fame of this region, to which a whole complex is dedicated.

THE TREASURES OF TETOUAN

Past the walls of the medina, walk on the footmarks of Andalusia in one of the most beautiful and lively city of Morocco, now classified as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Stroll the alleys lined with green and white houses reminiscent of Seville or Granada.

In front of the doors, in the squares, craftsmen working their best crafts ; painters work on wood, embroiderers known as the "Jebliates" sell their mendils in Guersa El Kébira, which are colourful pieces of fabric in red, blue or white. Hispano-Moorish art is not to be outdone. In the Mellah, the Jewish quarter of the medina, you'll find shops whose main artery leads to the Royal Palace.

GOLF

Exceptional golfing holidays!

In Morocco, golf is a little more than a sport, it's a tradition! For a little over a century, courses have been dotted around the country: today there are 37 of them, giving you the opportunity to practice your passion in the best conditions, in the middle of splendid settings and taking advantage of the most modern infrastructures. Don't hesitate any longer! Go to Morocco to make birdies, bogeys and eagles!

THE CABO NEGRO GOLF BEACH, THE JEWEL OF THE RIF

Designed by Hawtree & Sons in 1976 and redesigned by Cabell B. Robinson who gave it its current look, the Cabo Negro Golf Beach is nestled on the side of the Rif Mountains, facing the sea.

Thick shrubs, dunes, flowers, water and hills dot the course which, from time to time, regains a wilder and more natural look with vegetation made of agaves and mimosas. It is open all year round.

THE SAÏDIA MED GOLF, A GREEN MUSEUM

The first of the 3 golf courses planned in this resort, this 18-hole course was designed by the Spaniard Francisco Segalés, using an American-style design with touches of English style. All the infrastructures have been designed to ensure that players of all levels will have total pleasure.

Eventually, 36 other holes should enrich this complex, which aims to become the golf reference throughout the Mediterranean.

THE TANGIER ROYAL GOLF CLUB

This golf course, the first in Morocco, has kept the natural and authentic aspect that its designers, Cotton and Pennink, gave it in 1914. The amazement begins from the club house's belvedere from where you can contemplate the putting green and the driving range and continues along the shady fairways of pine, fir and eucalyptus trees. And when you reach the green of number 5, the highest point of the course, you are rewarded with a dazzling view of the rooftops of "Tangier la Blanche".

THE ROYAL GOLF FEZ, WHEN NATURE RHYMES WITH SPORT

At the foot of the Middle Atlas, the architect Cabell B. Robinson has played with the whims of nature and the undulations of the terrain to design a marvellous route through an olive grove.

The Royal Golf Fez is open all year round and offers tracks that wind between lakes and gigantic bunkers, the largest of which is 1200m<sup>2</sup>. Created in 1994, this course is a whim that few players can resist.

THE MEKNES ROYAL GOLF CLUB, A MOROCCAN ARCHITECTURAL TOUCH

History is still very present at the Royal Golf Meknes, the imperial city of Sultan Moulay Ismaïl. The murmur of the fountain adorned with mosaics, the walls housing a club house with, on the horizon, the roofs and minarets of the medina, are some of the charms of this course. In the garden, the aromas of orange, plum, palm and olive blossoms mingle.

THE ROYAL GOLF DAR ES-SALAM RABAT, THE CRADLE OF THE HASSAN II TROPHY

The Royal Golf Dar Es Salam in Rabat is a legend for golf lovers. Inaugurated in 1971 and designed by Robert Trent Jones Senior, it is a majestic course with splendid fairways winding between cork oaks, eucalyptus, palm trees, hyacinths, narcissus, mimosas, papyrus and Roman columns. A unique course where colours and smells mix. Open all year round, the Royal Golf Dar Es Salam is a course to be discovered and rediscovered.

THE ROYAL GOLF MARRAKECH, A COURSE OF MEANING AND PLEASURE

The Royal Golf Marrakech was one of King Hassan II's favourite courses. It has also known illustrious players such as Winston Churchill, Lloyd George, Eisenhower.

Designed in the 1920s by Arnaud Massy, modernized since then, it was built with the pleasure of the game in mind. In this environment with magnificent views of the Atlas Mountains, cypresses, palm trees, eucalyptus, olive trees, orange trees, apricot trees... An arboretum of 15,000 subjects stands majestically.

THE PALMGOLF MARRAKECH PALMERAIE, AN AUTHENTIC AND FUN EXPERIENCE

Thanks to the exceptional talent of its architect, the great Robert Trent Jones Senior who designed the course in 1992, the PalmGolf Marrakech Palmeraie combines lakes, lush palm trees, greens and bunkers against a unique backdrop: the snowy peaks of the Moroccan High Atlas. This course, open every day of the year, is adapted to any level of players, thanks to the numerous tees of each hole.

SAMANAH GOLF BEACH, NATURAL OBSTACLES FOR THE PLEASURE OF THE GAME

Samanah Golf Club is an exceptional course. A selective course, without unnecessary traps. The pleasure of the game is always at the rendezvous thanks to its natural obstacles which do not miss, between wadi, waterfall, lake, forest of olive trees and cactus, and which promise a game all in strategy. With the Atlas Mountains in perspective, this golf course offers no less than five different courses that any golfer will enjoy challenging.

LE GOLF DU SOLEIL, THE REFUGE FOR GOLF ENTHUSIASTS

In 1999, Muela and Courbin designed the Golf du Soleil in Agadir, including lakes and waterfalls, combining beauty with difficulty. An atmosphere that unites the prestige of the golf course with the dazzling nature of tamarind trees, mimosas, eucalyptus and bougainvillea creating a play of light and shade in the wide fairways, ready to welcome passionate players all year round.

THE GOLF OF THE DUNES, A FANTASY SETTING

The Golf des Dunes offers three different courses: Eucalyptus, Oued and Tamaris, which promise to triple the pleasures. They are the product of the imagination of Cabell B. Robinson who, in 1991, designed a course on this hilly ground, dotted with water points, on which golf can be played at all levels. A seemingly simple course from the outset to finish with a grandiose Par 5.

THE TAZEGZOUT GOLF CLUB, A SPECTACULAR VIEW OF THE ARGAN FORESTS

Located in the heart of the new seaside resort Taghazout Bay, the Tazegzout golf course offers an 18-hole course combining technicality and pleasure of the game. Designed by Kyle Philips, the course follows the natural site in which it is located, preserving as much as possible the endemic tree of the region: the Argan tree. Surrounded by a cliff which culminates at 80m above sea level, the golf course of Tazegzout offers at the level of each hole.

Imperial Cities of Morocco

Highlights: Private guided city and culture tours of Casablanca and Marrakech. Discover the traditional artisan's quarter in Fes with private guide. Choose to hot air balloon, ATV, or horseback ride in Marrakech. Explore the labyrinth of the Saadian Tombs with private guide.

From: US $ 4380 pp

Day 01: Casablanca - Rabat

You will be privately transferred between Casablanca and Rabat by a professional driver and an English-speaking guide. Approximate travel time is one hour and 30 minutes.

Rabat, Morocco's capital, rests along the shores of the Bouregreg River and the Atlantic Ocean. It's known for landmarks that speak to its Islamic and French-colonial heritage, including the Kasbah of the Udayas. This Berber-era royal fort is surrounded by formal French-designed gardens and overlooks the ocean. The city's iconic Hassan Tower, a 12th-century minaret, soars above the ruins of a mosque.

Day 02 - 04: Fes

A private vehicle with English speaking driver will provide a transfer between Rabat and Fes. During the transfer, explore the Imperial City of Meknes along with the Roman city of Volubilis. In antiquity, Volubilis was an important Roman town situated near the westernmost border of Roman Empire. It was built on the site of a previous Carthaginian settlement from the third century BC.

Fes is a northeastern Moroccan city often referred to as the country's cultural capital. It's primarily known for its Fes El Bali walled medina, with medieval Marinid architecture, vibrant souks and old-world atmosphere. The medina is home to religious schools such as the 14th-century Bou Inania and Al Attarine, both decorated with elaborate cedar carvings and ornate tile work.

Day 05 - 07: Marrakech

Travel in a privately driven vehicle from Fes to Marrakech, making a lunch stop en-route.

Explore the rugged terrain of the Middle Atlas Mountain range, boasting towering cliff faces, and incredible passes. Marrakesh, a former imperial city in western Morocco, is a major economic center and home to mosques, palaces and gardens.

The medina is a densely packed, walled medieval city dating to the Berber Empire, with mazelike alleys where thriving souks (marketplaces) sell traditional textiles, pottery and jewelry. A symbol of the city, and visible for miles, is the Moorish minaret of 12th-century Koutoubia Mosque.

Morocco & High Atlas Mountains

Duration: 08 Nights | 09 Days

Places: Casablanca | Fes | Marrakech | High Atlas Mountains

Highlights: Enjoy Berber hospitality with local interactions and home-cooked meal. Embark on private guided tours of Hassan II Mosque in Casablanca, Fes, and Marrakech. Choose to 4x4, mountain bike, or horseback ride in the mountains. Private transfers throughout.

From: US $ 5990 pp

Day 01: Casablanca

Casablanca is a port city and commercial hub in western Morocco, fronting the Atlantic Ocean. The city's French colonial legacy is seen in its downtown Mauresque architecture, a blend of Moorish style and European art deco. Standing partly over the water, the enormous Hassan II Mosque, completed in 1993, has a 210m minaret topped with lasers directed toward Mecca.

Day 02 - 03: Fes

Fes is a northeastern Moroccan city often referred to as the country's cultural capital. It's primarily known for its Fes El Bali walled medina, with medieval Marinid architecture, vibrant souks and old-world atmosphere. The medina is home to religious schools such as the 14th-century Bou Inania and Al Attarine, both decorated with elaborate cedar carvings and ornate tile work.

Day 04 - 06: Marrakech

Marrakesh, a former imperial city in western Morocco, is a major economic center and home to mosques, palaces and gardens. The medina is a densely packed, walled medieval city dating to the Berber Empire, with mazelike alleys where thriving souks (marketplaces) sell traditional textiles, pottery and jewelry. A symbol of the city, and visible for miles, is the Moorish minaret of 12th-century Koutoubia Mosque.

Day 07 - 08: High Atlas Mountains

High Atlas, also called the Grand Atlas, is a mountain range in central Morocco, North Africa, the highest part of the Atlas Mountains. The High Atlas rises in the west at the Atlantic Ocean and stretches in an eastern direction to the Moroccan-Algerian border.

Morocco's rugged High Atlas region, and the desert that lies just to its east, is home to the country's most raw and spectacular scenery.

Villages snuggle into deep valleys or cling precariously to mountain slopes. Snow-capped peaks shimmer on the horizon, while below a carpet of lush green fields rolls out before you.

Morocco Signature

Duration: 09 Nights | 10 Days

Places: Casablanca | Fes | Erfoud | Merzouga | Skoura | Marrakech

Highlights: Trek into the High Atlas Mountains for a homestay lunch. Journey into the dunes of Erg Chebbi on 4x4 and camel. Discover Fes, Casablanca and Marrakech, with private guide. Private transfers throughout.

From: US $ 7490 pp

Day 01: Casablanca

Casablanca is a port city and commercial hub in western Morocco, fronting the Atlantic Ocean. The city's French colonial legacy is seen in its downtown Mauresque architecture, a blend of Moorish style and European art deco. Standing partly over the water, the enormous Hassan II Mosque, completed in 1993, has a 210m minaret topped with lasers directed toward Mecca.

The medina is home to religious schools such as the 14th-century Bou Inania and Al Attarine, both decorated with elaborate cedar carvings and ornate tile work.

Day 04: Merzouga

Merzouga is a small Moroccan town in the Sahara Desert, near the Algerian border. It's known as a gateway to Erg Chebbi, a huge expanse of sand dunes north of town. West of Merzouga, Dayet Srji is a seasonal salt lake that's often dry in summer. When full, it attracts a wide range of migratory and desert birds, including desert warblers, Egyptian nightjars and, occasionally, flamingos.

Day 05 - 06: Skoura

Skoura lies astride the route from Ouarzazate to the Sahara and is a town typical of those in the Dades Valley. The modern town offers little to detain the visitor, but the palm plantations are criss-crossed by paths that run by crumbling pisé walls up to kasbahs in equally ruinous condition.

The whole effect is quite beautiful and if you are going to break your journey anywhere in the Dades Valley, Skoura is as good a place as any.
